stagnation in business and difficulty in making collections.

The business is an old one, having been started in 1829 as P & I. Barstow. In 1831 the style of the firm became Hissom & Monham; in 1854 H. E. Blossom; a 1853 Avery & Lockwood; in 1850 Lockroad & Geery, and in 1829 Isaac F. Jeery. The business has been very small furing the past year. The firm imported wines, English ales and stout and mustard.
